what is the vacation policy?	The vacation policy states that employees are granted a certain number of paid vacation days each calendar year, which accrue on a monthly basis. Additionally, employees who have been with the company for at least three years are granted an additional number of paid vacation days annually. To take vacation leave, employees must obtain approval from their managers in advance. They also have the option to borrow vacation days with written approval from their managers before accruing those days. Unused vacation days may be carried over to the next year if the employee notifies their manager in writing by January 31 of the new year and confirms that all vacation days from the previous year are accurately recorded. However, failure to provide notice and confirmation may result in the forfeiture of carryover days. It is important for employees to accurately track their vacation and personal time off, as any lack of accuracy may result in reduced or eliminated provision of accrued but unused leave at the time of departure from the company.	2023-10-16 23:27:11

	BharatAgri is an agritech startup based in Bengaluru, India. It was founded in 2018 by Siddharth Dialani and Sai Gole, who are alumni of IIT Madras. The company aims to address the key problem of low production in Indian farms by providing personalized scientific agriculture advisory services to farmers. The platform offered by BharatAgri is app-based and uses AI-based agronomy services to help farmers increase their farm incomes through the systematic implementation of scientific farming techniques. It collects over 30 data points from farmers and provides year-long seasoned scientific advisory in the form of personalized schedules. BharatAgri's advisory services cover various aspects of farming, including land preparation, nutrition management, pest and disease control, water management, and inter-cropping operations. The platform combines weather-based parameters with agricultural data to offer more accurate advice to farmers. In addition to advisory services, BharatAgri also operates an e-commerce platform called Krushidukan. Farmers can purchase a diverse range of agricultural inputs such as seeds, fertilizers, pesticides, and farming equipment from the platform. The products are delivered to the farmers' doorsteps within 3-4 working days, ensuring convenience and authenticity. Since its inception, BharatAgri has delivered value to more than 1 lakh farmers, covering over 2 lakh acres of land. The company has seen significant growth, with its e-commerce platform growing at a cumulative monthly rate of 100% since its launch in September 2022. BharatAgri has received funding from various investors, including Capria Ventures, Omnivore, India Quotient, 021 Capital, Ratnagiri Impex, and Sanjiv Rangrass. The company raised INR 14 crore in an extended Series A round in February 2023.

what is the process for quarterly check ins?	The process for quarterly check-ins may vary depending on the organization, but generally, it involves the following steps: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Setting Goals: At the beginning of each quarter, employees and teams set specific goals and objectives that align with the overall goals of the organization. These goals should be measurable, achievable, relevant, and time-bound (SMART goals). 2. Progress Tracking: Throughout the quarter, employees track their progress towards their goals and regularly update their supervisors or managers on their progress. This can be done through regular check-ins, progress reports, or project management tools. 3. Performance Evaluation: At the end of the quarter, employees and managers evaluate the employee's performance against the set goals. This evaluation may include reviewing completed tasks, assessing the quality of work, and measuring the achievement of goals. 4. Feedback and Discussion: During the quarterly check-in, managers provide feedback to employees on their performance, highlighting areas of strength and areas for improvement. This is also an opportunity for employees to discuss any challenges they faced, seek guidance, and ask questions. 5. Goal Adjustment: Based on the evaluation and feedback, employees and managers may adjust or refine the goals for the next quarter. This allows for continuous improvement and alignment with changing priorities. 6. Documentation: It is important to document the outcomes of the quarterly check-in, including the goals set, progress made, feedback given, and any adjustments made. This documentation serves as a reference for future evaluations and helps track the employee's growth and development over time. Overall, the process for quarterly check-ins aims to ensure regular communication, goal alignment, performance evaluation, and continuous improvement within the organization.	2023-10-20 11:36:43

Quarterly Review: At the end of each quarter, employees and their managers conduct a quarterly review to assess the progress made towards the set objectives. This review includes evaluating the difficulty and attainment of the OKRs, discussing challenges faced, and identifying areas for improvement. 3. Performance Evaluation: During the quarterly review, employees and managers discuss the employee's performance and provide feedback on their strengths and areas for development. This evaluation helps in identifying the employee's contribution to the team and their individual growth. 4. Action Items: Based on the quarterly review, action items are identified to address any gaps or areas for improvement. These action items serve as a roadmap for the employee to focus on during the next quarter. 5. Follow-up and Support: Throughout the quarter, managers provide support and guidance to employees to help them achieve their objectives. Regular check-ins and communication ensure that employees have the necessary resources and support to succeed. 6. Ongoing Development: Capria emphasizes continuous learning and development. Employees are encouraged to participate in training programs, workshops, and coaching sessions to enhance their skills and capabilities. Overall, the quarterly check-in process at Capria aims to provide a structured framework for performance evaluation, goal setting, and ongoing development to ensure that employees are aligned with the organization's objectives and are continuously growing in their roles.	2023-10-20 11:38:30

how do we calculate annual recurring revenue?	Annual recurring revenue (ARR) can be calculated using different methodologies. One approach is to determine the valuation based on ARR multiples. If a startup has a relevant churn rate between 2% and 4% and is not growing at a fast pace, the ARR multiple could be calculated between 2.0x ARR and 4.0x ARR. On the other hand, if the churn rate is controlled and does not exceed 1.5% per month, and the company grows between 25% and 50% per year, then the ARR multiple can range between 4.0x ARR and 6.0x ARR [1]. Another way to calculate ARR is by determining the annualized value of an acquired customer and estimating the number of such customers that can be acquired profitably and retained [2]. Additionally, the company may monitor renewal rates and calculate the monthly renewal rate (cohort-based) as the number of students who renewed up to 60 days post the expiry of their tenure divided by the number of students whose tenure is due to expire in a specific month [3]. It is important to note that the company continuously works on optimizing customer acquisition cost (CAC) and renewals to improve ARR [5].	2023-11-01 18:50:05
What is the formula for annual recurring revenue?	The formula for annual recurring revenue (ARR) is based on the expected annualized gross margin value (V) of secure users. V is calculated as the sum of M1-n, where n is the median number of trips taken by habituated users in a year. [0] Additionally, in the GMV methodology, the valuation of a startup can be determined based on ARR multiples. The multiple can range between 2.0x ARR and 4.0x ARR if the churn rate is between 2% and 4% and the company is not growing rapidly. If the churn rate is controlled and does not exceed 1.5% per month, and the company grows between 25% and 50% per year, the multiple can range between 4.0x ARR and 6.0. [1] The annualized value of an acquired customer and the number of such customers that can be acquired profitably and kept are key factors in determining ARR. [2]	2023-11-01 18:51:47

What is the reimbursement process?	The reimbursement process involves several steps. [1] First, the employee initiates the process by making a copy of a task with their name in it and moving it to the 'Pending Reimbursements' section of the project. They then complete the first few sub-tasks designated for 'Reimbursee'. [1] Next, the task is assigned to the employee's manager for approval. [1] Once approved, the manager assigns the task to the finance person managing reimbursements, who completes the process. [1] As part of the reimbursement request, the employee fills out an expense report with accounting and allocation details, such as GL Account and Allocation Entity. [5] The employee can use a reimbursement form template provided by the firm, which can be an Excel or Google Sheet saved in their private reimburse folder on Dropbox or Drive. [2] In India, paper receipts are required for business expense reimbursement, and they may need to be made available to auditors. [4] For expenses incurred in India, the employee needs to fill out the expense report in the Reimbursement Request spreadsheet. [5] The firm has created an Asana project called 'CV Reimbursement Requests' to manage the reimbursement processing. [6] Each reimbursement is initiated by copying a template task in Asana. [6] Reimbursements will be reviewed by the finance team, and any questions will be confirmed with the employee. [6] Reimbursements will be processed within 2 weeks of submission. [6] For non-India teams, it is preferred to charge business expenses to a corporate credit card. [6] For other incurred expenses, employees need to fill out the expense report in the Reimbursement Requests spreadsheet. [7] Capria Ventures will reimburse employees for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred while doing business-related activities for the firm. [9] Travel expenses must be submitted with the appropriate forms and receipts within 30 days of incurrence. [9]	2023-11-03 03:30:54

When should the Brex Credit Card be used?	The Brex Credit Card should be used for different purposes, such as different vendors [0]. If the card is lost, stolen, or compromised, it should be immediately reported to Nick Scott and Brex customer service at +1.855.637.2227 to freeze the card [0]. Receipts are required for every charge of $50 or more, and it is preferred to have a receipt for every charge [1]. Receipts can be attached to transactions via SMS, Brex Mobile App, or Dropbox [1]. The Brex Credit Card is intended primarily for business travel expenses, but it may also be used for smaller items such as company supplies [2]. For team members based outside Seattle, authorization from a Partner may be required to charge additional items [2]. Business Credit Cards are provided to all full-time employees [3]. Employees are initially provided with a credit limit based on their business expense needs, and they can request an increase by assigning an Asana task to the Ops Lead [3]. For in-person card purchases, a photo of the receipt can be sent via SMS, which will be attached to the transaction viewable by the cardholder and the finance team. Alternatively, receipts can be added to transactions via the Brex Mobile App. If the receipt is not already attached to the Brex account, it should be saved in the shared private Dropbox folder for credit card receipts [5].	2023-11-03 03:36:00

What are OKRs?	OKRs, which stands for Objectives and Key Results, is a collaborative goal-setting tool used by teams and individuals to set challenging, ambitious goals with measurable results [0]. It helps track progress, create alignment, and encourage engagement around measurable goals [1]. OKRs can be used in various contexts such as office operations, software engineering, nonprofits, and personal goals [1]. The system starts at the top and travels down the chain of command within a company [2]. It has been used effectively by startups as well as large organizations and was invented at Intel [2]. OKRs involve setting top-level objectives for a company and defining measurable key results related to each objective [4]. They are set quarterly and annually, publicly available to the entire company, and graded each quarter on a scale of 0 to 1 [4]. The benefits of using OKRs include disciplining thinking, accurate communication of priorities, establishment of progress indicators, and focused effort [5]. Objectives should be ambitious, while key results should be measurable and easy to grade [6]. OKRs are public within the company, allowing everyone to see what others are working on and how they performed in the past [6]. The ideal grade for an OKR is between 0.6 and 0.7, and consistently achieving a grade of 1.0 indicates that the OKRs are not ambitious enough [6]. OKRs are not synonymous with employee evaluations and should not be used as a performance evaluation weapon [6]. Individual OKRs can be useful for personal development and allow individuals to track their progress and identify areas for improvement [7]. OKR software tools are available to help track and manage objectives and key results effectively, providing features such as goal-setting frameworks, progress tracking, analytics, and collaboration functionalities [9].	2023-11-08 20:57:57

Where can you determine which team member is leading each project and major area of work?	To determine which team member is leading each project and major area of work, you can consider the following information: - Within smaller organizations (~50 employees or less), the more senior the decision maker, the better. [0] - Within larger organizations (100-1000+ employees), target the lead of whichever branch or team is the most relevant to your target sector, geography, or investment strategy. [0] - Capria recommends dividing responsibilities across partners based on functional areas or sectors. For example, one partner may act as the CFO, another as the lead fundraiser, and another as the lead people manager. what to do when there is phishing email	When you receive a phishing email, there are several steps you can take to protect yourself. First, be cautious of links in emails and text messages. Before clicking on a link, hover over it to check the destination URL [1][2][3][8]. If the URL looks suspicious or unfamiliar, do not click on it. You can also google the URL to see if it is associated with any known phishing scams [2][3]. Additionally, if someone you know sends you a message or attached file that you were not expecting, do not open it without confirming with that person in-person or on the phone [3][8]. It's important to be skeptical of questionable URLs and to avoid sharing sensitive information over email or messages [9]. By following these precautions, you can reduce the risk of falling victim to a phishing attack.	2023-11-09 15:10:36

Write out the 2 steps to complete when taking PTO	Before going on PTO, one should reach out to their manager/director to confirm the PTO and check team calendars for potential overlaps [2]. Additionally, it is best practice to add to the PTO and post a message to slack to let people know you will be on leave [3].	2023-11-10 00:22:15
Write out the 2 steps to complete when taking PTO	The two steps to complete when taking PTO are as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The first step is to add the PTO to the Capria PTO Calendar. This is important to ensure that all team members are aware of the upcoming absence and can plan their work accordingly [feedback]. 2. The second step is to request the PTO via the Zenefits system. This is a formal process that needs to be completed to officially record the PTO [1]. Please note that these steps should be completed at least one month in advance of the planned PTO [1].	2023-11-10 00:23:24
how do I file an expense reimbursement for Capria?	To file an expense reimbursement for Capria, you need to fill out the expense report in the Reimbursement Requests spreadsheet that is shared with you by the finance team [1]. If you have been issued a corporate credit card, it is preferred to charge business expenses to the credit card [1]. For any other incurred expenses, you need to track expenses that may be billable to a fund or a project by assigning a unique code to each billable entity [0]. You should scan receipts corresponding with each line item on an expense report to your Dropbox reimbursement folder [0]. If there is no receipt for a claimed expense, you should note this in the report [0]. For meal expenses, please include the names of the people present [0]. The finance team will review and confirm any questions they have with you and you will be reimbursed within 2 weeks of submission claims [1]. If you are unsure if something is reimbursable, please ask your Manager before you incur the cost [2]. For business expense reimbursement in India, paper receipts are required which can be made available to auditors. Unfortunately, if you don't have a paper receipt (or can print out an e-receipt), then Capria won't be able to reimburse you [5]. For travel expenses, they must be submitted with the appropriate forms and receipts within 30 days of incurrence. Travel expenses not reported within 30 days may be deemed non-reimbursable [2]. Capria will reimburse team members for all reasonable business-related travel [3]. If you are primarily visiting another Capria office, also see Type 2 travel guidelines [3]. If you are getting reimbursed for offsite expenses, use your business credit card (Brex) if you have it. Otherwise, submit expense reimbursements after the trip (or earlier if they are larger purchases like for flights). In your reimbursement sheet please add Capria-Offsite as the Allocation Entity [6].	2023-11-10 00:24:29

List 3 of our naming conventions for files and folders.	One of the naming conventions is to append file names specific to a fund with conventions in appendix, for example, Capria II Investment Financials [0]. Another convention is to identify the entity for which the document is created; Unitus, Capria, or both with CV [1]. Lastly, to make it easier to understand the progression of document versions, version numbers are added to filenames to clearly distinguish updated versions, for example, adding "v1.1" to the end of file names [3].	2023-11-10 00:26:55
List 3 of our naming conventions for files and folders.	The first naming convention is to identify the entity for which the document is created. For instance, if the document is for Capria, it should be prefixed with 'Capria' [Chunk ID: 1][Feedback]. The second convention is to use 'TEMPLATE' to identify a template document [Chunk ID: 0]. The third convention is to append 'WIP' or 'DRAFT' for documents that are being worked on [Chunk ID: 0].	2023-11-10 00:38:45

capria ventures	Capria Ventures LLC is a confidential entity [0]. They are currently extending their product offerings and expanding geographically, which might be spreading them too thin [1]. Their lending is currently being conducted through equity and not debt, although this is not their long-term plan [1]. They have plans to speak to Quona, Integra, Next Billion, and IFC as their next steps [1]. They had an Investment Team Meeting on 18-Oct-2022 [1]. They also had a pitch perfect scenario with Maua, where they pitched a "Series B" entrepreneur scenario [1].	2023-11-27 09:34:46

	Here is the reimbursement policy information based on the data you've provided: "At Capria, the process of reimbursement for business expenses follows a specific set of policies to ensure transparency and compliance. These policies are designed to provide guidelines for employees and stakeholders on how expenses should be incurred, submitted, and approved. To begin with, it's important to note that all expenses must be incurred in accordance with the pre-established budget and any unspent funds should be returned to the company. Additionally, each expense claim must be supported by original receipts or other appropriate documentation, which will be subject to verification. Regarding the timeline for reimbursement, expenses should be submitted promptly, preferably within a month of incurring them. Any delays may result in issues with reimbursement. The finance team will review the submitted expenses and provide feedback or rejection within a reasonable timeframe. In terms of approval, the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) holds the authority to approve expenses that fall within the company's predefined limits. For expenses exceeding these limits, or those that require special approval, the CFO will seek consent from the Chief Executive Officer (CEO). It's crucial to note that any violations of these policies may result in consequences, including denial of reimbursement and further disciplinary actions. To ensure compliance with tax regulations, the company's finance team will retain the right to scrutinize expense reports and request additional information or documentation if needed. In summary, Capria's reimbursement policy aims to provide clarity and accountability for business expenses. Employees and stakeholders are expected to adhere to these guidelines to ensure proper financial management and compliance within the organization."

	To receive a new laptop, there are often specific steps one can take, and these may vary depending on the organization and its policies. Here are some general tips that may help you get started: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Check your company's policy on laptop replacements: Understanding your company's policy on laptop replacements is the first step. This policy should outline the criteria for eligibility, how to request a replacement, and the process involved. Ensure you understand the policy to determine if you are eligible for a replacement. 2. Assess the condition of your current laptop: Before requesting a new laptop, it's essential to consider the condition of your current one. If it's malfunctioning or unable to perform tasks efficiently due to its age or other factors, gathering evidence of these issues can help support your case for a replacement. 3. Discuss your needs with your manager or IT department: Once you have gathered information about your company's policy and assessed the condition of your current laptop, schedule a meeting with your manager or reach out to the IT department to discuss your needs. Explain the issues you are facing with your current laptop and why you believe a replacement is necessary. 4. Explore alternative options: Depending on your company's policy, there may be other options available for obtaining a new laptop. These could include upgrading your current device through a scheduled refresh cycle or participating in a trade-in program if offered by your company. Exploring all possibilities can help you make an informed decision. 5. Put together a request proposal: If you decide to proceed with requesting a new laptop, prepare a formal request proposal. This proposal should outline your justification, any performance issues you've experienced, and how a replacement will help you be more productive. Remember that the process may take some time, and it's essential to be patient and professional throughout the negotiation. It's worth noting that the specific steps to obtain a new laptop may differ depending on your organization's policies and procedures. It's always best to consult your company's guidelines or speak to your manager or the relevant department for the most accurate and up-to-date information. If you have any further questions or need additional assistance regarding laptop replacements, please don't hesitate to ask.

	Based on the information you've provided, here is some general advice about Capria: Drinking water: Capria advises people to drink UV or RO filtered water in nice restaurants, which suggests that the water is safe for consumption in such establishments. This may also imply that the ice provided in these restaurants is made using the same filtered water source. Food guidance: Capria suggests that peeled fruits and fresh-cut fruits are safe to consume, whereas raw veggies should be avoided. They further advise that cooked food is generally better than raw food. In nice restaurants, sushi is considered safe to eat. It's worth noting that dairy products such as ghee, butter, curd (yoghurt), milk, etc., are common ingredients, and if you're vegan or have dairy allergies, you should exercise caution and inquire about these items in your meals. Crossing the street: Capria doesn't provide specific advice about crossing the street in this context. Fintech industry: The fintech industry plays a significant role in Capria's advice. They note that due to a large population below the poverty line, fintechs need to be sensitive in how they target customers. While people in this demographic may be easily attracted to credit opportunities, fintechs must consider whether their customers have the ability to pay back loans. Consequently, mergers and acquisitions may not be as effective in this region due to the limited number of good acquisition options.
